SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Bill 1005 repeals the entire Organized Crime Act (§§ 29-9-1 through 29-9-17 NMSA 1978), which created the Governor's organized crime prevention commission and gave it powers to prevent the infiltration of organized crime in New Mexico.

Significant Issues

The bill will eliminate the seven member commission, which has the power to issue subpoenas, hire investigators, conduct investigations and hold public hearings in aid of its efforts to combat the infiltration of organized crime in New Mexico. It is also empowered to assist and evaluate statewide efforts to combat organized crime, craft plans to improve that effort, and issue an annual report to the governor and the legislature.

The Governor has made no appointments to the organized crime commission.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

The organized crime commission does not currently exist so there is no savings or cost attached to this bill.
